

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY

HOW IT WORKS:

Register for SHI's Our Cultural Landscape Cultural Responsive Education (CRE) Conference and attend the keynote address, featured speaker presentations, and five breakout sessions.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE:

- Indicate your interest in our Professional Development Credit Program when you register for SHI's CRE conference.
- Register for UAS credit. SHI staff will assist with the process at the conference.
- Attend all required sessions: keynote address, featured speaker talks, five breakout sessions.
- Submit a 3–5 page reflection by August 15.

Thru the Cultural Lens program is supported by the Alaska Native Education (ANE) program of the US Department of Education PR#S356A240009, as part of a $1.89 million award, which pays for 100 percent of the total cost of the program. The contents of this program do not represent the policy, views, or endorsement of ANE, DOE, or the US Government.

EARN PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CREDIT:

College credit is available through the University of Alaska Southeast (UAS) School of Education. Conference attendees have the option to receive 1 UAS credit (ED 593), for a $90 fee.

BENEFIT:

Credit earned may be applied towards a professional credential (e.g., Alaska teaching license). Contact your institution to determine eligibility.
